

Merry
Christmas!

It's not what's under the tree that matters. It's who's gathered around it.

Christmas classroom games

Jingle Bells

Jingle Bells is a fantastic game a classroom Christmas party. It is also suitable for all ages.

Age: 5 +

You will need:

- ✿ a large space (preferably uncarpeted)
- ✿ a chair
- ✿ a set of bells
- ✿ a blindfold (scarf will do)

How to play:

The children sit in a circle. A chair is placed in the centre of the circle and the set of bells put underneath. A child is chosen to be Santa and sits on the chair. Santa is then blindfolded.

A child in the circle is chosen to be the thief. The thief must try to steal the bells without being heard. If Santa hears a noise he must try to point at the thief before the thief returns to his / her place in the circle. If the thief succeeds, Santa has another turn while a new thief is chosen. If the thief is identified, they become the new Santa and the previous Santa rejoins the circle.

Variations:

Depending on the numbers and ages you can adapt the last part. For example in a large group you can pick a different Santa and thief each time to try and ensure everyone has a go at something. With younger ones let the thief become Santa whether they succeed or fail in getting the bells.

My Dream Gift

This is a very simple game for which you only need a slip of paper and pencil for each player. It works well in the classroom, where everybody knows each other to some extent.

How to play:

Give everyone a slip of paper to write down their dream gift, if money were no object. Put all the slips of paper in a Santa hat and mix them up. Now each person draws a slip of paper, reads out the gift, and tries to match it with the person who wants it.

It can be fun seeing how well everyone knows each other. You may find that the children surprise you with their dream gifts.

Variations:

Set a money amount. What would your dream gift be if you could spend £1,000? £10,000?

Instead of „My Dream Gift”, ask children to write down a gift for a particular person. This could be a celebrity, a politician, a family member, or perhaps someone you know who is unhappy or needs help this Christmas.

A letter to Santa

Age: 5+ and older students to write back

Ask your primary school students to compose letters to Santa. They can personalise them with information about themselves and also, importantly, ask questions. Have a discussion session first to decide what sort of questions they really want some answers to, try to think of unusual ones, not silly).

Students then decorate the letters and put their name, age etc. „Send” letters via the school letter box.

You can ask your secondary school students to reply to the kids’ letters!

Each student can choose one child to reply to and assume the identity of the person (Santa or an elf (explaining that Santa is too busy these days). The younger children are usually really surprised to receive a „genuine” reply and of course it appears so because each question is answered!

Snowman Game

This Christmas Snowman Game, a drawing game, is fun for all ages, from little kids up to grandparents, but it only really works when the players don't know what to expect.

Age: 5+

You will need:

- ✿ a paper and pencil for each player
- ✿ a blindfold for younger players (older players may be trusted to keep their eyes shut!)

How to play:

Give everyone a piece of paper and a pencil (and blindfold if necessary). Tell them to close their eyes and draw what you tell them to. Don't tell them what they will be drawing.

When everyone has finished their drawing, they can open their eyes and compare!

Award a prize to the best drawing and a booby prize to the funniest.

Christmas quiz

First, match the words in bold with the pictures. Then decide if the following sentences are true or false in the UK.

- 1 Santa (or Saint Nicholas) enters your house through the chimney and the fireplace.
- 2 Traditionally, if you hang a stocking by the fireplace, Santa will fill it with money.
- 3 Father Christmas travels on a sleigh pulled by reindeer.
- 4 Santa lives in the North Pole, and if English children send a letter to Santa, Santa's Grotto, Reindeerland, SAN TA1, he will reply.
- 5 It is traditional to kiss people underneath the mistletoe.
- 6 Now, holly is used as a decoration, but traditionally, it was to protect us against evil spirits.
- 7 It is bad luck to have Christmas decorations up after the 6th January.
- 8 Traditionally, crackers contain jokes, hats and food.
- 9 English people traditionally eat turkey on Christmas Day.
- 10 It is illegal to eat mince pies on Christmas Day.
- 11 It is traditional to cook money (for example, a £10 note) inside a Christmas Pudding.
- 12 The Mariah Carey song „All I want for Christmas is you” is a carol.
- 13 The day before Christmas is called Christmas Eve, and the day after is called Boxing Day.
- 14 There are 25 days on an advent calendar.
- 15 Snowmen are traditionally dressed as Santa.
- 16 We have used the word „Xmas” instead of „Christmas” for over 500 years.

Teacher's notes

1 INTRODUCTION + ACTIVITY

Introduce the activity by seeing how many of the pictures the students can identify. Then give them time to match the words in bold with the pictures (or parts of pictures) and discuss which sentences they think are true in the UK.

Monitor the students and give help/clues where necessary. Note: Christmas Eve is on the advent Calendar (24th) and several of the pictures could be called decorations.

2 FEEDBACK

Elicit answers from the students.

- 1 True
- 2 False. He fills it with presents.
- 3 True
- 4 True — this is a service from the post office!
- 5 True
- 6 Apparently this is true — a long, long time ago!
- 7 True. If you forget to take them down, you should leave them up till the next Christmas to avoid more bad luck.
- 8 False. Jokes and hats, but not food.
- 9 True-ish. Although goose and other fowl are also eaten.
- 10 True, but it's one of those old laws which aren't enforced anymore. If you don't believe me, look at this website: news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/wales/6204511.stm (obviously everything on the internet is true!)
- 11 False. Coins, not £10 notes!
- 12 False. Carols are songs of praise or joy — not pop songs.
- 13 True. Sorry I couldn't find a picture for Boxing day!
- 14 False-ish. When I was a child, advent calendars had 24, but some do have 25 nowadays.
- 15 False. Carrot noses, coal for eyes, scarfs and hats are the usual.
- 16 True (according to Webster's dictionary). It uses the Greek letter „chi” which looks like an „x” in English.

3 FOLLOW-UP

The true/false sentences could be used as prompts for the students to discuss and compare with Christmas festivities in their own countries. (e.g. for number 1 – does Saint Nicholas travel in a sleigh? Is it pulled by reindeer?).

Or, students could create their own true/false quiz about a festival in their country.

Or, the Mariah Carey song „All I want for Christmas” uses some of this vocabulary – if you can find the lyrics on the internet, you could make a gap fill for this!

Christmas Worksheet

Match a definition to a Christmas word.

- 1 ___ a traditional Christmas song
- 2 ___ a kind of sock which gifts are put in
- 3 ___ an object used for travel over snow, pulled by animals
- 4 ___ metal objects which make a noise when hit
- 5 ___ traditional Christmas day royal broadcast
- 6 ___ objects which make a Christmas tree look pretty
- 7 ___ made of wax and string, it burns slowly
- 8 ___ a strong wine drunk before a meal
- 9 ___ a model of a person, made outside in winter
- 10 ___ gifts
- 11 ___ a bright light seen in the sky at night
- 12 ___ the day before Christmas

Christmas Worksheet

Place some of the words from exercise 1 into this short description of John's Christmas in England.

JOHN'S CHRISTMAS

Preparations for Christmas start early. We buy the Christmas tree a week or two before and then put the <sup>1</sup> _____ on it one evening after school. Near to Christmas, we like to light <sup>2</sup> _____ in the evenings too, because it looks more festive.

The children hang up their <sup>3</sup> _____ at the end of their beds, on <sup>4</sup> _____, and we put some small toys or food into them.

On Christmas Day, we usually get woken up quite early by the kids, who are always keen to open their <sup>5</sup> _____. We sit around the Christmas tree and open them in the morning.

We like to go to church too. We can hear the <sup>6</sup> _____ from our house and it's only a short walk. The children like singing <sup>7</sup> _____.

Then, it's back home for a glass of <sup>8</sup> _____ before Christmas dinner. We eat that and then watch <sup>9</sup> _____ on TV, like most people in the UK.

If it has snowed, we'll be outside later playing snowballs or making a <sup>10</sup> _____, and then it's just a relaxing family day watching TV and perhaps playing a few games. We usually eat too much and have to go to bed quite early!
